3. Any negative reserve balance will not be penalized.
4. The AMP credit in reserve cannot be used to pay any monthly amount due, unless the accountholder terminates the AMP by executing the Cancellation Form.
5. If service is interrupted due to non-payment, any AMP credit in reserve will not be applied to the balance to reconnect service.
6. Cancellation of the AMP will occur when the account is disconnected and final billed (via standard operating procedure), and the reserve will be applied to the final bill.
